

Teen Enter EC Beauty Pageant

On Thursday evening, January 12, East Central's first beauty pageant was held in Huff Memorial Auditorium. Seventeen lovely freshman and sophomore girls competed in the pageant held to select five beauties to be featured in the WO-HE-LO, East Central's yearbook. One of this five has been selected as most beautiful, but this name will be revealed when the yearbook is distributed.

Chosen as beauties were Dot Barfoot, Gail Dunagin, Melinda Horton, Ann Huffman and Susan Hughes.

Dot Barfoot, sophomore from Union, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barfoot. She has been a member of the ECJC Players, was a sophomore maid in the homecoming court, and is a member of the French Club. Dot is a business major and plans to attend the University of Southern Mississippi next year.

Philadelphia Soph

Gail Dunagin, sophomore from Philadelphia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Dunagin. Gail has been a cheerleader at East Central for two years. She was freshman maid in the 1965 homecoming court, Maid of Honor in the 1966 homecoming court, and a maid in the 1966 May court. She was secretary of the freshman class, a member of the Home Economics Club, the ECJC Players, the School Spirit Committee and the Election Committee. Gail is majoring in home economics and plans to attend the University of Southern Mississippi.

Melinda Horton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Horton of Decatur, is a sophomore liberal arts major. She is a member of the French Club and the School Spirit Committee. She teaches the Sunbeams at Clarke Venable Baptist Church. Melinda plans to attend an airline stewardess school after graduating from East Central.

Ann Huffman of Carthage is the daughter of Mr. B. L. Huffman. She is a member of the Phi Beta Lambda and is a freshman business major.

Susan Hughes, a freshman secretarial science major from Forest, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R.

Hughes. She is a member of the ECJC Players and was a member of the cast of Junior Miss.

Five additional girls were selected in the "top ten" in first round judging but were eliminated in the final balloting. These five were Sandra Anthony, Janice Hatch, Gwen May, Barbara Nowell and Waudell Wooten.

Sandra Anthony, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Anthony of Sebastopol, is a sophomore mathematics major. On campus she is treasurer of the Phi Theta Kappa, secretary of the French Club, librarian of Sigma Tau Sigma, a member of the ECJC Players, and was 1966 homecoming queen. After graduating from East Central Sandra plans to attend the University of Mississippi.

Janice Hatch, a freshman secretarial science major from Forest, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hatch. She is a member of Phi Beta Lambda and the Tom-Tom staff.

Gwen May, a sophomore home economics major from Forest, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James

M. May. Gwen is sports editor of the Wo-He-Lo; president of the Home Economics Club; a member of the choir, the Bel Cantos, the BSU; and was a member of the 1966 May Court. After graduating from East Central Gwen plans to attend Mississippi State College for Women.

Barbara Nowell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thel Nowell of Union, is a sophomore clothing merchandising major. She was a member of the 1966 homecoming court, the Home Economics Club, the Sigma Tau Sigma, the Hospitality Committee, and the ECJC Players. Barbara was a member of the cast of Junior Miss. Next year she plans to attend the University of Southern Mississippi.

Waudell Wooten, freshman business major from Carthage, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Wooten. She is a member of Phi Beta Lambda and was a freshman maid in the 1966 homecoming court.

SBA Sponsors

The Student Body Association sponsored the pageant. Thursday afternoon at 5:30 a dinner was held for the contestants and judges in the Gordon Room. At 6:30 the judges interviewed each contestant in Jackson Hall.

The pageant proper began at 8:00 in Huff Auditorium. Edward Rainer, Student Body Association President, welcomed guests to the first such pageant ever held at East Central Junior College. Ovid Vickers, head of the English Department, acted as Master of Ceremonies.

Entertainment was furnished by Jan and Jean, a folk duo, composed of Jeanette McAdory and Jean Underwood. Charles Pennington, instructor in business and commerce, furnished organ music during the pageant. The ECJC Stage Band, under the direction of R. G. Fick, also furnished several selections while the judges were deliberating.

The setting for the pageant was a formal garden complete with fountain. Shelby Harris, of the Math Department, designed and supervised the setting. Mrs. Dianne McPhail was overall director of the pageant.

Judges were prominent people from outside the five-county area.

ECJC BEAUTIES—Selected as beauties in the first beauty pageant ever held at East Central were (l. to r.) Dot Barfoot, Susan Hughes, Melinda Horton, Ann Huffman and Gail Dunagin.

'TOP TEN'—The judges selected ten first round winners in beauty pageant competition. Facing the judges and audience after being named in this group of ten are
